

Hana Jalloul Ph.D.
Consultant.

Hana Jalloul Muro earned a PhD at the Universidad Complutense of Madrid in the International Relations and International Public Law Department. She has been a Junior Expert on two European Commission projects in Lebanon for over three years. She worked as a Political Assistant: European Union Election Observation Mission for the Parliamentary Lebanese Elections 2009.

She has been a lecturer, teaching in the dual bachelor's in international studies-Politics: Political Theory and Ideologies, Introduction to Politics and Political Analysis I, Department of Social Sciences, at University Carlos III until January 2024. She has been a lecturer at the University of Nebrija till June 2019 teaching: The European Union: culture, History and Institutions. She taught International Terrorism: Master in Geopolitics and Strategic Studies at University Carlos III and Comparative Politics at Carlos III University, postgraduate students, till February 2020.

She has worked as an adviser in the technical cabinet of the Delegate of the Government in Madrid till May 2019. From 26th May till 28th February 2020 she was appointed as a deputy (MP) in the Assembly (Parliament) of the Community of Madrid. From February 2020 till March 2021 she was appointed as Secretary of State for Migration of the Government of Spain. She was deputy, spokesperson of the Socialist Parliamentary Group at the Madrid Parliament. She was appointed responsible of the Secretariat of International Politics and Cooperation for Development of the Spanish Socialist Workers' Party.

She has been an active member of the IAAP Task Force on Terrorism and Peacebuilding since 2018. Most of her publications and conferences are related to migration issues, prevention on radicalization, Islamic law, moderate and radical Islamism, deconstruction of jihadist narratives and international politics. She participated as an expert in the last stages of the elaboration of the Spanish National Strategy against Terrorism 2019.

She is Vice-President of the Socialist International and Deputy at the National Congress since December 2023. Member of the European Council on Foreign Relations (ECFR).

Currently she is a Member of the European Parliament. She is Vice-Chair of the Committee on Foreign Affairs (AFET) and member of the Subcommittee on Human Rights (DROI), the Committee on International Trade (INTA) and the Committee on Petitions (PETI).

December 2024