

SARA LIÉBANA, PH.D. CANDIDATE
COLLABORATOR

Sara Liébana holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from the Complutense University of Madrid (UCM), where she currently is working on her PhD in clinical psychology. Sara also holds a master's degree in General Health Psychology from the European University of Madrid. She completed the 4th edition of the "Comprehensive Assistance to Victims of Terrorism" Diploma, organised by the Spanish Association of Victims of Terrorism (AVT) and the UCM. She has subsequently been a professor for the 6th and 7th editions of the diploma program. Since 2015, Sara has worked in the Psychological Clinical Treatment research team at the UCM. The research team focuses on providing comprehensive assistance to victims of terrorism.

Sara has participated in several projects funded with I+D budgets. She has given lectures at several national and international psychology congresses. Currently, Sara is a researcher in the Personality, Assessment and Clinical Psychology Department of the UCM Psychology School.

Since 2018, she has been a member of the International Association of Applied Psychology (IAAP) and the vice-president of the IAAP Division 15. During this time, she also is collaborating with the IAAP Task Force on Terrorism and Peace Building.

February 2019.

Task Force on Terrorism and Peace Building
International Association of Applied Psychology

