

JAMES KAGAARI, PH.D
MEMBER

Associate Professor James Kagaari, Ph.D, lectures at Kyambogo University and Makerere University Business School and is the current President of the Uganda Council of psychologists. The International Association of Applied Psychology (I.A.A.P) has honoured him with an award of “Fellow” for his contributions to the growth and development of psychology globally and has now saved a four year term as a member of IAAP Board of Directors. In addition, James Kagaari is serving as a member of the IAAP Task Force on Global Terrorism.

In 2013, when the first ever Eastern Africa Regional Psychology Conference was hosted in Kampala, Uganda, James Kagaari was the Chairman of the Organising Committee. His current areas of research interest include studies on Ugandan children’s perceptions of Peace and conflict and Assessment Centres.

April 2018

Task Force on Terrorism and Peace Building
International Association of Applied Psychology