

Task Force on Terrorism

IAAP TASK FORCE ON TERRORISM AND PEACE BUILDING ACTIVITIES March, 2021

We would like you to contact us if you are working on terrorism field or if you are interested in it.

Do you know what our aim is?

The primary aim of the International Association of Applied Psychology (IAAP) Task Force on Terrorism and Peace Building is to engage members of the psychology community (teachers, researchers, practitioners, and students) in the issue of terrorism.

What is happening in the Task?

Resources

- We have uploaded new resources. Look into our page.
Wilson López, member of our Task Force on Terrorism and Peace Building has shared with us this paper: Etienne Mullet, Immaculée Mukashema & Wilson López López (2020) Mapping the Reconciliation Sentiment, Peace Review, 32:1, 13-21.

Remember this opportunity!

- Invitation to participate in Psychological Injury and Law Journal:

Our colleagues Johnrev Guilaran , PhD and Ian de Terte, PhD are guest editing a special issue of Psychological Injury and Law.

“This special issue aims to contribute to the understanding of the interface between the different risk and protective factors associated with psychological consequences for first responders, and the legal consequences and implications for first responder organizations in relation to these psychological consequences”. If you are working on this field, this could be a great opportunity to publish and disseminate your research projects.

To learn more about the journal, go to <https://www.springer.com/journal/12207>.

To read the full call for abstracts, go to <https://tinyurl.com/psych-injury>

Twitter account

As you know, we are using Twitter as a place to post news and information about our work and some other contents that we found interesting. Please look (or even better, please follow us!):

@IAAP\_Terrorism

