

Do you know what our aim is?

The primary aim of the International Association of Applied Psychology (IAAP) Task Force on Terrorism and Peace Building is to engage members of the psychology community (teachers, researchers, practitioners, and students) in the issue of terrorism.

What is happening in the Task?

- Projects:

- Publications

We have been working on a guide that the Official Association of Psychologist of Madrid (COP- Colegio oficial de psicólogos de Madrid) edited. This guide is entitled: “Menores viviendo una Guerra: guía para crear entre todos un paraguas de protección psicológica”. It is a document where we have summary the main psychological and emotional reactions after living a traumatic event such as a war. This document pursue to help all those families, kids and teenagers affected by the Ukraine war. The guide contains information for parents and also educators. It is in Spanish language but is being translating to Ukrainian in order to help people who is suffering directly.

You could press here to take a look: GUIDE Menores viviendo una Guerra: guía para crear entre todos un paraguas de protección psicológica

- FUTURE ACTIVITIES

- María Paz García-Vera will participate next December 1st, in the military Spanish congress about psychological aspects. She will talk about the importance of psychological support in order to get resilience.

Have you participated in any scientific congress or activity? Let us know! We will love to know about it and the specific contributions about terrorism consequences and spread the ideas.

- Twitter account

As you know, we are using Twitter as a place to post news and information about our work and some other contents that we found interesting. Please look (or even better, please follow us!):

@IAAP_Terrorism

