

IAAP TASK FORCE ON TERRORISM AND PEACE BUILDING ACTIVITIES (March, 2019)

"Violence and terrorism are profoundly changing the world we live in, affecting our effectiveness, security and well-being. A better understanding of what spurs violence and terrorism in today's world is needed to develop more effective approaches to thwart violence and terrorism in the world"

GET INVOLVED IN OUR PROJECT!

- We are glad to count on John Guilaran and Cynthia Meyersburg in our Task Force International teamwork. From February, they are contacting international associations in order to ask them for their collaboration filling up our online survey.
- We have start calling associations via Twitter also, in order to let people know about our project. Our coordinator Rocío has created different content to upload into Twitter account.

If you know any psychological association let them know about our project! And let us know their details for contacting them!

- Cynthia Meyersburg, Ph.D. participated in the 2019 annual convention of the Society for Personality and Social Psychology in Portland, Oregon, USA. She was on a panel entitled Psychology Careers Serving the Public Interest. In March, Cynthia will participate in a symposium at the 2019 International Convention for Psychological Science in Paris, France. The symposium is entitled, "Trigger Warnings! Helpful, Harmful, or Neither?," and the title of Cynthia's talk is "Are Trigger Warnings Functionally Inert?"
- Task Force collaborators, Roberto Navarro, Pedro Altungy, Sara Liébana, Andrea García de Marina, Jose Manuel Sanchez and Rocio Fausor have been working to assess and to provide treatment to all the victims of terrorism who need it around Spain. This program is a University Complutense attention program in which the Task Force on terrorism and peace building collaborators are involved. The regions visited along the past month have been in Cadiz and Huelva.
