

1. We Celebrated the World Mental Health Day

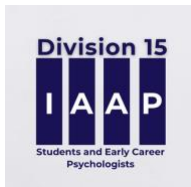

To celebrate the world mental health day on 10th October, our division's European Ambassador Ana Kraljevic participated at the online roundtable Mental Health is the Universal Human Right organized by the European Federation of Psychology Students Associations.

The panellists from various international associations such as the American Psychological Association (APA), the European Federation of Psychologists' Associations (EFPA), the Student Division of Psychological Society of South Africa (PsySSA SD) and EFPSA explored various dimensions of mental health, including its universality, the challenges faced globally, and the strategies to promote mental well-being on an international scale. The event aimed to educate, inspire, and engage our audience, creating awareness and encouraging positive actions related to mental health advocacy.

2. DIVISION 15 participated at the Global Student Psychology Convention

In collaboration with our partners GSPC, CEP PIE and EFPSA we organized the online Global Student Psychology Convention from 8 until 10 October 2023. Participants got the chance to present their research under the scoping theme of Psychology and Sustainable Development Goals.

The President of Division 15 Marija Davcheva presented the work form Division 1 Work and organizational psychology This works in my place Latin America Edition. The main goal of the project (“This Works in my Place – Latin America”) was the identification of relevant contextual factors that give inputs (challenges, opportunities, barriers) to Work and Organizational Psychology (WOP) strategies and practices in achieving five relevant Sustainable Development Goals of the United Nations: “no poverty”, “good health and well-being”, “gender equality”, “decent work” and “innovation”.

4. IAAP Division 15 UN Youth Mental Health Climate Crisis Advocacy Campaign

Division 15 members under the guidance of Professor Dr. Judy Kuriansky have been actively involved in an advocacy campaign on youth, mental health and climate crisis. The team has been meeting with UN Permanent Representatives from various countries and has been paving the way for many partnership opportunities. Congratulations!

Best regards,
Marija Davcheva
