PSYCHOLOGY DEGREE

Psychology degree lasts for 4 years and is basically divided into two periods: a period of two years, in which the Technician in Psychometrics (equivalent to a general psychology and measurement) is studied, and the remaining two years, in those who can opt for the mentions: Clinical Psychology, Industrial Psychology or School Psychology. Classes are offered in Spanish.

The two subsequent years in which the students choose the mention must rotate in different institutions, (hospitals and therapy centers in the clinical case, schools in education and companies and institutions in the case of industrialists); for this, we have an agreement with a broad scheme of places that offer services for many conditions and ages, so I understand that this experience would serve their students a lot, both because of the context of the hospital system and because of the cultural aspects of the Dominican Republic.

What they offer and prices

- ▶ The cost is per semester and there are three semesters per year. So the cost of the year would be US $ 8,439.00. If the student pays the full annuity, he receives a 10% discount on tuition
- ▶ The monthly cost of living for an international student in the Dominican Republic is approximately US $ 900.00.
- ▶ Medical Insurance can be obtained from the University and has an approximate cost of US $140.00 per semester.

Interesting information

- ▶ The university has an interesting Chamber of Gesell in which we see aspects of either clinical or forensic psychological interview, verbal therapy techniques to psychodrama and other techniques or that at this moment we are doing joint research with Dr. Barca, which is an eminence in psychology in Spain.

- ▶ On the other hand, those who have University studies must also legalize them there in the Dominican Republic through the MESCyT (the one that validates the Universities). We will also use the documentation for the University and we will do it when they come. In this case, it costs 160 dollars to be paid at the Ministry.
