

James H. Bray, Ph.D.

James H. Bray, Ph.D. is Professor of Psychology Department at University of Texas San Antonio, USA. He was the 2009 President of the American Psychological Association and the 2015 President of the Texas Psychological Association. His presidential themes were the Future of Psychology Practice and Science and Psychology's Contribution to Ending Homelessness. He is also a member at large of the board of directors of the International Association of Applied Psychology. He was previously on the faculty in the Department of Family & Community Medicine at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, Texas. Dr. Bray's NIH funded research focuses on adolescent substance use, divorce, remarriage and stepfamilies. He is a pioneer in collaborative healthcare and primary care psychology. He has over 200 publications and he has presented his work in 20 countries.

<https://jamesbray5f06.myportfolio.com>